More About the Wholesale Bribery of Members of the French Chamber.

M. Andrieux Again Gives Damaging Testimony—Proceedings of the Commission.

PARIS, Jan. 20.—The sole topic of conversation in the Chamber, lobbies and cafes this afternoon has been the arrest of Cornelius Herz. The prospect of his return to France and the possibility that he will reveal the evidence which he holds against prominent politicians and financiers has excited general apprehension outside of Royalist and Socialist circles. The arrest is regarded with a feeling closely akin to a panic. The gravest fears exist on account of the Senate, whose members are believed to be threatened more seriously than all others through Herz's return. Everybody feels that the worst will come out as soon as Herz shall come before the examining magistrate. In view of M. Herz's capture, the Liberte comes out with a statement as to the relations betwech Herz and Baron de Reinach. Documents seized upon the premises occupied by Herz when he lived under the name of Schwab Howes, show, says that journal, that de Reinarch was the debtor and Herz was the creditor, as was affirmed by Howes in this letter published in the Cocarde last evening.

At the Palace Bourbon, this afternoon, M. Andrieux was the principal object of curiosity, and at every turn he was the centre of a little knot of deputies who plied him with questions as to Herz. M. Andrieux reiterated his statement that Herz was not a spy for the Triple Alliance, but, as advanced in the Figaro interview, had struggled to detach Italy from Austro-Hungary and Germany.

After Deputy Gerville had informed the Parliamentary Commission of Inquiry that he would introduce in the chamber a bill forbidding recipients of Panama money to alienate their estates,

M. Andrieux was called upon to throw more light upon the bribery of 104 deputies, concerning whom he had already testified. He said that he had not the original of the photographed list which he had submitted to the commission. The name cut out of the list, he said, was that of a high political dignitary. He had promised on his honor not to reveal this name, and he must persist in the refusal. M. Andrieux refused also to give the names mentioned in M. Arton's notebook, on the ground that there was not sufficient evidence against the men named, and he did not wish to blacken reputations ruthlessly. As to the check endorsed by M. Davonci, a clerk, presumably as agent for the same high personage, M. Andrieux said that he could refer the commission to the speech of M. Rouvier in the Chamber on the day of his retirement from the Ministry of Finance.

M. Rouvier had obtained Panama money for the purpose of replenishing the secret service fund when attacked by La Lanterne. In 1887 M. Rouvier had paid 100,000 francs to that journal as the price of peace. He explained the matter at the cabinet and was allowed to take a thousand francs of secret service money and thus had depleted the fund. M. Andrieux said that he had obtained the memorandum as to the checks, etc., from Cornelius Herz, who had received them from de Reinach. M. Andrieux said he did not know that de Reinach had shown the memorandum to M. Clemenceau, but he himself had once shown them to Clemenceau. Herz, after quarrelling with de Reinach, had sent to M. Constans, then minister of the Interior, documents to show that de Reinach had tried to poison him. Subsequently, however, de Reinach and had been reconciled. As to the check mentioned in Arton's note book, Arton alone could give the desired information. Arton was at present in correspondence with several men in Paris, notably with the Boulangist deputies, Georges Laguerre and Tenail Mermeix.

On the strength of M. Andrieux's testimony the Commission decided to summon deputies Laguerre Tenail, Mermeix and Clemenceau to appear before them to-morrow. After leaving the Commission, M. Andrieux passed several minutes in conversation with Deputies de la Haye and Millevoye, to whom he reiterated his statements as regards Herz's loyalty to France and his efforts to break the Triple Alliance.

Le Temps says that in view of M. Stephanie's testimony as to his delivering to M. Clemenceau Baron de Reinach's memorandum, concerning the bribery of deputies, M. Tiburio Franqueville, examining magistrate, has summoned Clemenceau to appear before him to-morrow for examination.

There are three counts in the indictment against Cornelius Herz. The first concerns the 60,000 francs received by him from Charles de Lesseps; the second, the two million francs received by him from Baron de Reinach; the third, the menacing letters written by him with the intention of blackmailing Baron de Reinach. The total number of the Arton check foils is now known to be 1,010. Of this number possibly the majority are excluded from legal consideration by the statute of limitations, as the checks are drawn before 1885. The Parliamentary Commission of Inquiry may examine the stubs of these checks; but the judges are bound to ignore them. The most important of the checks in question, however, were drawn in 1887 and 1888 for the benefit of deputies, theatrical beauties and other professional persons, mostly women and newspaper men. The whole sum involved by these stubs is some 6,000,000 francs.

M. Andrieux told the parliamentary Commission of Inquiry to day that some years ago he received from Brazil a letter signed "Ami," in which Baron de Reinach was accused of having hired the writer to poison Cornelius Herz. When the letter was shown to him, de Reinach pretended that he had wished merely to frighten Herz into leaving Paris. The letter from "Ami," however, was in no way jocular, but apparently meant business. After the reconciliation between the two men, M. Andrieux said Herz said that de Reinach was anxious to have his son marry Miss Herz.

LONDON, Jan. 20.—Dr. Cornelius Herz was arrested last night on a warrant issued on the demand of the French Government, on a charge of being implicated in the Panama Canal swindling and corruption. Herz was arrested at Bournemouth, where he was lying ill in bed. The police have him in charge.

The Morning News yesterday published an interview with Henry Rochefort concerning the Panama scandal. Rochefort says: "There is no doubt that Constans started the Panama exposure to get revenge for his exclusion from the cabinet." He derived the bulk of his information from Cornelius Herz. Constans, moreover, inspires the Cocarde, even when it attacks the president. It is a mistake to suppose that Carnot received anything but favor from the Panama company. He can be blamed only for accepting dishonest men for his ministers. The zeal of M. Bourgeois in sifting the Panama affair is due to his ambition to become president.

"They all want to be president, 50 or more of them," said M. Rochefort. "The Panama contractors will receive sentences, and the five or six deputies and ministers will be sacrificed and the rest will escape. It is almost certain that the proceedings against Rouvier will be dropped, although I don't believe he applied the money in the secret service—it went into his own pocket. Flequet, however, paid out a great deal of money to small newspapers. The Republic is in no way endangered by the scandals—nobody need fear a dictatorship or a kingship or anything of that sort. The Comte de Paris is too prudent to think of mounting the throne, nor will the scandal affect the Russian alliance. Russia needs the alliance with France to counterpoise the triple alliance. At the next election the Socialists will gain the greatest benefit from the scandal."

British Reinforcements for Egypt.

LONDON, Jan. 19.—Two companies of South Wales Borderers have been ordered to start for Egypt on Monday. The companies will be equipped at full war strength. Under instructions from the French foreign minister the French ambassador to-day sent a note to the British foreign minister in reference to affairs in Egypt, saying that France could not remain indifferent to acts on the part of Great Britain tending to infringe on the independence of the Khedive.

Hawaii and the United States.

HONOLULU, Jan. 9.—The legislature has passed a resolution which states that in view of the unsatisfactory condition existing in the commercial relations with the United States, a committee of the Hawaiian legislature will be appointed by the Queen to proceed to Washington City to obtain information as to the terms upon which closer commercial relations, mutually advantageous to the two countries, could be established, and the result reported to the legislature. Five thousand dollars has been appropriated to defray the expenses of the committee, which consists of L. A. Thurston, R. W. Wilcox, J. Nawabi, J. K. Joseba and J. H. Waipuilani. On January 4 a vote of want of confidence in the present ministry failed to pass. The objection to the ministry was that there were not enough Hawaiians in the cabinet.

William Head Quarantine Arrangements—Important New Militia Regulations Adopted.

(From our own Correspondent.)

OTTAWA, Jan. 20.—Mr. Gamble arrived here to-day to discuss the plans for the new buildings at the William Head quarantine.

The Government has received an offer from England for the mammoth cheese, which will recoup entirely the cost of its manufacture.

A new militia regulation provides that no officer can be commissioned provisionally hereafter above the rank and pay of second lieutenant.

The Dominion and Provinces will hold a conference on the 31st inst. with a view to an amicable adjustment respecting their powers on the subject of quarantine.

Mr. Ewart, counsel for the Roman Catholic minority, arrived from Manitoba to-day. He appears before the Privy Council to-morrow.

The Labrador railway scheme, chartered three years ago, comes before Parliament again with an application for an extension of time. The probabilities are that the request will be strongly opposed.

Hon. Mr. Costigan will act as Minister of Marine and Fisheries during Hon. C. H. Tupper's absence.

The province of Manitoba has withdrawn from the World's Fair arrangement and will run a separate show of its own outside the Fair grounds. Mr. Greenway's reason for this change is that he was not accorded sufficient space for the different buildings, and wants to make a big push to advertise the province. Naturally some little annoyance is felt here at this action of the province, which has for the time being complicated arrangements.

The Deputy Minister of Marine has been notified by the Chief Engineer of the Lighthouse Board that contracts have been made for the construction of lighthouse buildings at Turn Point and Patos Island in the Straits of San Juan. The work will be commenced immediately. It will be some months before the lights are in operation.

Authority has been granted to change the name of the Victoria schooner Halcyon to the Vera.

In the efficiency competition the British Columbia artillery standing was: No. 4 Battery (Smallfield's), 1st, 211 points; No 3 (Quinlan's), 186; No. 1 (Townley's), 183; No. 2 (Sargison's), 164. The total possible marks were 260. The Brigade average was 186.

KIDNAPPING SAILORS.

Preliminary Hearing of the Cases of Holtz and Jarensen for Abducting the Crew of the Bawnmore.

(From our own Correspondent.)

NANAIMO, Jan. 20.—The preliminary hearing in the case of the two men Holtz and Jarensen was continued to-day before Magistrates Planta and Bate. The evidence of the prosecution so far consists of the statement of Sergeant Gibbs, that he saw the former about 12 o'clock in the saloon of the Crescent Hotel in company with six or seven other men. They seemed to be drinking and talking together. This evidence is directly contrary to that of the watchman of the ship J. B. Brown, the vessel to which the prisoners belong. He swears positively that the men were on board the vessel all night, and could not have left the ship without his knowledge. The whole case seems to be a deadlock—evidence against direct evidence. The boatswain of the Bawnmore positively swears to Holtz and the mess boy to Jarensen.

To-day two boys, companions of the mess boy, who were on board at the time of the seizure, testified that they saw every man who came into the forecastle. Neither of the prisoners was among them. The prosecution asked for further time to get their case in shape, and it was remanded until to-morrow at two o'clock. During the progress of the trial some lively scenes took place between counsel for the defence and the prosecution. Chief of Provincial Police Stewart Simpson asked to have certain evidence heard for the sake of convenience. When it was heard he tried to have the Court consider the evidence as being before them. This was refused, and the evidence returned in a peremptory manner by Judge Planta, who became incensed at the hint of a commission to sit on the case. As yet no trace has been found of the missing crew of the Bawnmore. Their fate remains a mystery. It is thought they may have been taken away in a union sloop which is supposed to ply in these waters for such purposes. Great interest is felt in the case, as many citizens think the union has been too audacious; but it now looks doubtful if the evidence can be secured.

FROM SEATTLE.

Senatorial Fight at Olympia Still Continues—Suicide of a Merchant—Mr. Yesler's Will.

SEATTLE, Jan. 20.—(Special)—The senatorial fight at Olympia is still a deadlock. Allen got three more votes to-day, leaving him six to make. Fifty-seven are necessary to a choice. Twenty-two ballots have been taken all told.

E. T. Elder, hardware merchant, Front street, hanged himself about 10:30 this morning in the basement of his store. He was 66 years of age. The body was found rigid in death suspended by a small rope, which was tied in an ordinary slip noose about his neck and fastened to a scantling in the tin shop in the basement of the hardware store. The discovery was made by A. L. Wilson, who was employed as a clerk in the store. The toes of the dead man nearly touched the floor. At one side was an upturned box about eighteen inches high. It had been evidently kicked from under him after he had adjusted the noose about his neck. There were evidences of fearful convulsions, his features were distorted, and one of his hands was bruised, showing that in his death struggles he had struck against an upright beam near by. He has been despondent for several months owing to financial reverses. His relatives think he was demented. He had sent Mr. Wilson down town about nine o'clock, and then locked up the store and descended to the dark basement where he hanged himself.

All the government offices were closed to-day in respect to the memory of ex-President Hayes.

A petition has been filed in the Probate Department of the Superior court to-day, praying that there be delay in the Yesler will case, as it is believed the deceased made a will, although it cannot be found. The supposed witnesses to the document are now out of the state. The judge granted a four weeks' stay.

The annual meeting of the Burrard Inlet Gun club will be held on Saturday evening.

Scores in the big billiard tournament at Hotel Vancouver continue to be chalked down. Only the crack players are now left, and the games are becoming very interesting.

The Westminster footballers are putting in extra practice for Saturday's match. The game will be a memorable one. Harry Senkler, late Osgoode Hall three quarter, has joined the Terminal City team. The players will be: Back—R. P. Woodward; three-quarters—C. H. Woodward, McIvor Campbell and H. Senkler; half backs—J. Lawrenceson and R. Fairclough; forwards—R. Fripp, C. Coles, H. Alexander, H. H. Watson, E. Quigley, J. Graham, T. Bland, A. McCreary and E. B. Bushnell.

Owing to the favorable comments of the COLONIST, "Siberia" drew an immense audience last night, who came to see the spectacular effects spoken of in the paper. So, while highly pleased with this part of the performance, they were not disappointed at the abilities of those who took part in the melodrama proper.

The Board of Works has accepted the offer made by T. R. Hardiman to take $150 from the city for damages sustained by his daughter in falling off a defective sidewalk.

The city will defend the suit brought against them by Mr. Rounsefell for extras on Seventh avenue.

Tenders will be called for by the city for section 10 of the sewerage extension.

The City Solicitor reports that he can find no evidence to warrant him in concluding that the charge of the Trades and Labor Council that D. McGillivray has sublet part of the city contract is true.

Ernest Buse, proprietor of the sawmill at Hastings, fell off a boom of logs opposite his mill this morning, and was rescued with great difficulty. His life is now in danger.

Captain Organ, of the British bark Sabrina, burst a blood vessel this morning, and is in a dangerous condition.

WESTMINSTER.

NEW WESTMINSTER, Jan. 20.—Grand Chief Patriarch Waller is here from Victoria installing the newly elected officers of Harmony Encampment No. 22. A grand banquet was tendered him after the ceremony.

Large orders are being received from all parts of the East for fresh salmon, but there is no supply yet.

Wing Lee, a large Chinese trader on Lulu Island, was sold out by the sheriff to-day.

News of the death of James A. Laidlaw, at Colton, California, reached the city this evening. The deceased was about 60 years of age, and leaves a wife and two children. He had been suffering from lung disease, and went to California for his health. Mr. Laidlaw was one of the pioneer salmon canners on the Fraser river. He was a most enterprising business man, and was largely interested in Mainland industries and property.

NANAIMO.

NANAIMO, Jan. 20.—Samuel McClughan, a logger, was killed near Seymour Narrows by a tree falling on him. It seems he had felled a big tree, and when clearing some smaller trees from under it it rolled on him and crushed him. He lived seven hours, when he expired. The body was brought here this afternoon by the steamer Joan. He has relatives in New Westminster and Vancouver. He was aged about 25.

The search for young Miller's body still continues. Last Monday the dead body of a deer was found on a log. It had been shot in its legs. In the opinion of the search party, young Stark must have shot the animal, and in endeavoring to get it home lost his way. It is thought that Miller's body will be found in the neighborhood of the deer. Six men are now carefully searching the woods.

Nanaimo is minus one of her many moss-covered verandahs, which was to-day torn down from the offices of a legal firm on Commercial street. Now then, brethren, keep up the good work, and while you are about it just widen out the long bridge so that pedestrians can cross it without having to walk on the hand rail for fear of passing vehicles, and your petitioners, as in duty bound, will ever, etc.

ALBERNI.

ALBERNI, Jan. 17.—The weather for the last two weeks has been remarkably fine. There has been hard frost for the last few nights, but no snow.

A very unusual event happened last week. There was a wedding in town. Mr. Thos. Patterson was united in marriage with Miss Minnie Huff, daughter of G. A. Huff, Esq., by the Rev. Mr. Adamson. The newly-wedded pair left on Tuesday last for a honeymoon trip to the Mainland cities.

The lecture delivered by Rev. Mr. Adamson on the "Catacombs of Rome" proved very interesting. It was well attended and appreciated. There are other entertainments promised for the winter months. Rev. D. A. McRae is expected to lecture soon.

Invitations have been issued for the annual ball of the bachelors of Alberni, to be held in the Town Hall on the evening of the 24th.

Ma. H. Guillor has left for the Sound and Claoquaht to collect Indian exhibits for the World's Fair.

ENDERBY.

(From the Vernon News.)

W. Elson, Enderby's merchant tailor, has returned from his trip to the coast.

An enjoyable time was spent by the employes of the Columbia Roller mill on the 11th inst., when, owing to the kindness of R. P. Rithet & Co., they all partook of supper at the Enderby hotel.

Rev. T. Neville, of Vernon, and Rev. J. P. Hicks, of Enderby, exchange pulpits during the month.

It is said that some half dozen weddings will in all probability take place in the near future.

Last week J. Hutchison was brought up before Mr. Gibbs, J. P., to answer to a charge of violation of the traders' license regulations. He had been importing butter from the East and selling to different parties in the neighborhood. As this was the first case of the kind before Mr. Gibbs, he concluded to let the offender off with the nominal fine of $5, which is the cost of a license, and costs amounting to $5.

Mr. Wright, of the Enderby House, can lay claim to the finest team of drivers to be found anywhere in the vicinity. One of them is Mr. Wright's racer "Butcher Boy," and his mate is also a stylish, high-spirited animal.

WHITE VALLEY.

(Vernon News.)

The event of the season at Lumby was the formal opening on Thursday of the new Ram's Horn hotel.

Several transfers of real estate in the town of Lumby were effected lately, among other purchasers being Mr. Price Ellison and E. J. Tronson, who intend to build as soon as it will be convenient to procure material.

Rev. Mr. Langill is visiting throughout the valley with a view to obtaining assistance to build the new Presbyterian church in the town of Lumby. Mr. Quinn Faulkner has granted a site and a sum of money is at the disposal of the church authorities for building churches, where most needed.

Paul Bassette has purchased three acres of land from Andrew Carr, said land adjoining the townsite of Lumby.

It is expected that Mr. Coryell will be in the valley in a few days, and will survey the townsite besides doing other work for the settlers in the neighborhood.

Hamill & McLeod have recently made several shipments of furniture, one for the new Ram's Horn hotel at Lumby, and another for the hotel at Fairview.

A new school will soon be started. There are over twenty pupils of school age in the place, and over thirty children below school age, which will ensure a large attendance in a very short time.

A new dry-kiln is being erected by Messrs. Hamill & McLeod in rear of their sash and door factory.

The stockholders of the new town hall met in Keyes' hotel on Monday evening, and discussed several points connected with the business. After the opening they will determine a regular tariff of prices to be charged for the use of the hall. The Athletic club have engaged it for certain specified nights during the year, which will give a small revenue to commence with.

VERNON.

(The News.)

During the week there has been some good skating on Swan Lake.

W. Riley went down to Penticton on Monday to begin work on the new swing bridge.

Nearly all the work on the new Government building has been completed, but will not be taken off the contractor's hands until Mr. Lumby returns from the coast.

Those who may have to depend on Lake Okanagan for their ice supply will have to take their lemonade hot next summer.

The first industry for Okanagan Falls will be the new sawmill which is being put in by Mr. W. J. Snodgrass, of Le Grande, Oregon. The machinery is being brought in by way of Seattle, and has passed the customs. It is expected in Vernon in a few days on its way southward.

Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Cameron have heartfelt sympathy in the loss they have sustained by the death of their son, a bright little fellow of three years, who was carried off suddenly by croup. They had recently come to Vernon, Mrs. Cameron and her two children coming from Lachute, in Quebec, a couple of weeks ago, to join her husband here.

Charles Taggart, of Vancouver, paid Vernon a visit last week to look over the ground and note the prospects for starting an establishment here for the manufacture of candies, confectionery, etc. He will in a short time open out in the first city in the interior.

W. Middleton his bought 113 acres of the Earl of Aberdeen's Coldstream ranch, part of which is range land, and Mr. Wm. Appleton has also bought 160 acres. They propose going extensively into sheep-raising, a branch of farming in which Mr. Middleton had a great amount of experience in Scotland, although he intends still to carry on his dairying.

J. J. Hull is putting up a block of two stores on Barnard avenue between Smith Bros.' store and the Gilmore block. The building is to have a dwelling overhead.

Mr. Ross, the new C. P. R. detective who has taken the place of Mr. Devlin, paid Vernon a visit on Saturday last.

As the surplus stock of the Earl of Aberdeen's cattle on the Coldstream ranch has been sold to Mr. Price Ellison, the Coldstream meat market in Vernon has been closed for the time being.

It is reported that Chief Joseph, at the head of the lake, is seriously ill and his sickness is of a very peculiar type. It has attacked several of the Indians and the last stage is marked by mental derangement.

Sir Arthur Cowell Stepney is domiciled at the Kalemalka. In all probability he will purchase property in this vicinity.

Mr. Holmes, of Vancouver, is at the Kalemalka to recruit after a spell of illness.

Parties who have been digging foundations say that the frost has gone very little into the ground. It is rarely found deeper in the ground than three inches, and in most cases it is less. On the same day in which the mercury showed 32° below zero in Winnipeg it was 52° above in Vernon, and the climate is as dry as can be found anywhere.

Mr. Price Ellison will not oppose Mr. Cameron for the mayoralty. They have always been personal friends, and although Mr. Ellison has been pressed by friends to allow himself to be nominated, he has been proof against all temptations in that direction.

Mr. A. Holman, of Vancouver, is receiving inquiries from all quarters about the new town of Okanagan Falls. He is making arrangements to bring up a steam launch from the coast in about a week to take through to Dog Lake, and expects building operations at the Falls to begin in March.

SUCH OUTRAGES MUST CEASE.

Strong Feeling as to the Kidnapping of Sailors From the "Bawnmore," at Nanaimo.

An Effort Will Be Made to Punish the Offenders if They Can Be Caught.

The kidnapping of the sailors from the British ship Bawnmore at Nanaimo, the circumstances of which were related in the COLONIST of Friday morning, was a source of live discussion yesterday in shipping circles, and many and varied opinions were expressed as to the ultimate result of it. Though this was, perhaps, the most daring, it is not by any means the first outrage of the kind and, emboldened by past successes, the crimps seem to have lost sight entirely of the fact that there is a line beyond which they cannot go with impunity. Some time ago, when the attacks on non-union sailors first became troublesome, the matter was reported to Mr. F. S. Hussey, superintendent of Provincial police, who gave instructions which up to Thursday night seem to have been more or less successful in preventing the raiders from visiting the ships in the harbor. At that time, under Mr. Hussey's instructions, a harbor patrol was established, and it was only a few days before the Bawnmore incident reported to be working well, and the captains of the various ships were grateful for the protection afforded. The Bawnmore affair now calls for a sterner process, and it is understood that Mr. Hussey will go up to Nanaimo to-day to give the matter his personal attention. There are two offences which may be charged against the raiders, one of them—kidnapping—being a serious one, for, being counted as a felony, the law permits a sentence of seven years to be imposed. But the trouble about most of the prosecutions so far is that when the witnesses are wanted they are generally got out of the way, and thus the prosecution fails. Precautions will be taken in the present case, however, and an example is to be made of the parties implicated.

Hon. Theodore Davie, attorney-general, in speaking about the matter yesterday, said:

"I regret very much that such an outrage should have occurred, but all that can be done now is to teach the offenders as severe a lesson as the law will permit, and prevent any further trouble of the kind. I am not in a position yet to say exactly what will be done, but so far as the law officers of the Crown are concerned you may rest assured no stone will be left unturned to prevent a repetition of the outrage."

By advertisement elsewhere in this issue, it will be seen that prompt action has already been taken to apprehend the offenders in the present instance, and it is understood that should the information required be volunteered by accomplices, no action will be taken against them, as doubtless many of the Union already regret the action taken and would gladly avail themselves of an opportunity to show that they do not sympathize with violations of the common law.

PACIFIC PORTLAND CEMENT.

Something Concerning the Company Formed to Manufacture It and the Prospects of the Enterprise.

A COLONIST representative has been shown at the office of P. Leech, C. E., 6 Bastion Square, test samples of the Pacific Portland cement, and obtained from Mr. Jordan some interesting particulars concerning Portland cement. He remarked it is popularly believed that Portland cement is made from the Portland stone found in the south of England, and that any such stone, bearing similar characteristics, could be manufactured into Portland cement. This, however, Mr. Jordan said is a fallacy, as the world-famed English Portland cement is an artificial material, made from chalk and clay, proportioned with very great accuracy, blended together in water and burnt and ground for use. Its public introduction as an article of commerce does not date back much more than 45 years, when it commenced to supersede the Roman and Medina cements, both of which were made from a natural calcareous stone, and consequently were not of such reliable quality. Strange to say, remarked Mr. Jordan, neither the old world nor the new has ever produced a cement made from natural stone to approach in any way the quality of the artificially made article, Nature not having deposited in the rocks, all the constituent properties nor in such accurate or uniform proportions as the components of the artificial "Portland cement."

Respecting the cost of manufacturing this cement here, I have naturally gone into this subject thoroughly, in fact my estimates are based principally upon guarantees from the makers of the machines proposed to be adopted. Some time ago samples of the hardest materials intended to be used were sent to various makers of machinery, and they have forwarded their guarantees of the capabilities of their machines, which are fully borne out by those now in daily use. The manufacturing cost will be in an establishment turning out 100 barrels per diem, $2 per barrel, and from an establishment equal to 150 barrels per diem, $1.75 per barrel.

We shall be able to decrease the cost with an increased output, and taking into consideration that all local and American trade, as far south as San Francisco, can be carried on in bags, we shall be able to supply large orders at something like $12 per ton, all of reliable and guaranteed quality. Respecting the capital necessary for establishing such works, a mill of 100 barrels per diem capacity will require about $80,000, and one of 150 barrels capacity, $100,000. This mill, it is hoped, will soon be under way of construction. As to profits, these will be good. It is an easy matter to calculate our prospects as a dividend paying concern, when you look at the present price of English cement here. Respecting markets, I am confident our cement, owing to its being of guaranteed standard quality, will be readily accepted, nay, welcomed, by every engineer and architect of repute in this part of the globe, and will therefore have a ready sale. As an industry, from every point of view, the prospects of the enterprise and its resulting benefits stand unrivaled.

THE MARINE HOSPITAL.

TO THE EDITOR:—It was not my intention to rush into newspaper correspondence anent the above mentioned question; but so much has appeared in the newspapers lately in the shape of editorials and reports from members and directors of different institutions, that, in defence of the Department I represent in this Province, I consider it my duty to refute some of the calumnies which have been made public.

In the first place, the Marine Hospital being under the supervision of Dr. J. C. Davie, one of the ablest and most experienced medical men on the Pacific Coast, is of itself sufficient guarantee that sick seamen will received proper medical care and attention.

During the year 1892 75 patients have been under medical treatment in this hospital, and in no case whatever has there been any complaint regarding medical care or otherwise to the Collector of Customs or myself; on the contrary, ship-masters on behalf of their crews have always spoken most highly of the institution, with the exception of an angry Norwegian shipmaster, who brought in a sailor for treatment of rheumatism, and because the Doctor could not attend to him immediately, thought he had a grievance, and consequently reported to his Consul, Mr. Robert Ward, and this gentleman, without any other information or without inquiring whether his informer gave him a truthful report, brings an accusation against the administration of an institution of which he knows nothing; for neither he, nor any persons on his behalf, have visited the institution since the present keeper took charge.

Five patients during the past year have been removed to the Royal Jubilee hospital under instructions from Dr. Davie, for reasons best known to himself, but I fail to find any correspondence on file in this office that the Department of Marine and Fisheries has refused to sanction the payment of any account incurred on behalf of any sick seaman so removed.

Reflections are cast through the newspapers on an intelligent, conscientious and painstaking man (the steward of the hospital) because he only receives a small salary; insinuations are made that he cannot live and keep his family on the wages he receives, and consequently must recoup himself by stinting the patients under his charge. This I consider a most unjust and uncharitable accusation. Notwithstanding all this, he has testimonials from a large number of men who have been in the hospital, testifying as to his attention and good treatment.

Both the Collector of Customs and myself have asked the question of seamen and we have heard of no complaint, and I can testify that I have heard less grumbling at the usage received in this hospital than of any other institution of the kind in British Columbia.

Referring to the salary of the keeper, that is a matter between himself and the department. All agree that he does his work, and does it well. I have frequently visited the sick ward of the hospital, and everything is in a neat, clean and orderly condition.

In reference to the water supply I may say that negotiations are pending between the Marine department and the Esquimalt Water Works company for conveying water to the hospital. A large expenditure is being laid out on repairs to the building under the supervision of the resident engineer of the Public Works department.

I trust that I have been sufficiently explicit to disabuse the mind of any prejudiced person who might believe that there was any truth in the reports which have lately appeared in the newspapers.

JAS. GAUDIN,
Agent of Dept. of Marine & Fisheries.

VICTORIA WATER.

TO THE EDITOR:—Referring to your editorial in this morning's (Friday's) issue and to the analysis quoted, the season of the year makes a vast difference in the sample of Victoria water taken for analysis and, consequently, in the analysis itself.

In the case of the city water, I think the amount of total solids per gallon gives a very fair approximate idea of the condition or purity of the water, and I venture to state that the total solids of a sample of the water taken in August would be some twenty or thirty times greater than if taken during the months of January or February.

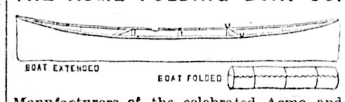

From November or December until May the water is on the average good, but as soon as the hot weather sets in it begins to get bad; bacteria, which could not live, or at least propagate, in the colder water, now increase in geometrical proportion; animalculæ, before dormant, spring into life, and all over the bottom of Beaver lake especially vegetable decomposition sets in, the gases formed stirring up the decomposing matter all over the bottom of the lake.

I made a complete analysis of the water at the first of April last year, which showed that it was above the standard of average drinking water; but I made a partial analysis a little later on, which did not give nearly such a good result. The increased amount of fresh water flowing through the lakes in winter helps to keep them clean; during the summer months we have not got this advantage, and semi-stagnation is the result.

I make this explanation in justice to myself and other analysts who may examine the water. HERBERT CARMICHAEL, Provincial Analyst.

THE SEVERE WINTER.

In every newspaper we open we see accounts of the unusual severity of the weather. In Eastern America the weather is colder than it has been for the last twenty-five years, and the cold has extended much further South than usual. The same may be said of Europe. Frost and snow have appeared in countries where they are rarely seen. In the South of France, in Spain, and even in sunny Italy, we read of the people suffering from cold, and travel being impeded by snow drifts.

Naturally, people are inquiring into the cause of these strange phenomena. Why, they ask, was last summer so much hotter than usual? Why is there a greater degree of frost this winter, and why does the unusual cold extend over a larger area than in ordinary winters? The really learned men who have made their reputation as scientists frankly and honestly say they do not know, but men who want to be thought learned in natural science look wise and propound wonderful theories to account for the extraordinary cold wave which is now passing over so large a part of the earth's surface. Some talk about the Gulf stream and others expatiate upon the effects of denuding the earth of trees. But people have got tired of hearing about the wonderful influence on climate of the Gulf stream, and the consequences of deforesting have become a threadbare story. So the men of the new school of meteorology look higher and talk learnedly of the spots on the sun, its feculæ and its eruptive prominences. They try in a misty kind of way to produce the impression that the degree of heat and cold felt by the dwellers on the earth depends in a great measure on the number and position of the spots on the sun, and the activity of the changes that are going on in that luminary. Some of the pundits tell us that the sun's electricity has much to do with the extremes of heat and cold on the earth, but how the very cold winters and the very hot summers are produced by these "great cosmical influences" they do not seem to have the slightest idea. As one reads the elaborate theories he is, if he is at all sceptical, tempted to suspect that the learned phrases and profound explanations are used merely to cover a very dense ignorance of the whole subject of meteorology, and to conclude that the philosophers know as much about the causes of the changes in the weather as those good but simple people who have from time immemorial attributed meteorological phenomena of all kinds to the influence of the moon. Their faith in the moon was and is unbounded, and they are quite as well satisfied with their own explanation as are the more pretentious of the weather doctors, who account for the severity of the present winter by referring it to "the variations of the sun's heat and electricity consequent upon the periodical changes of his activity."

We would like to hear the believers in "the great cosmical influences" explain how it is that the people of this part of British Columbia enjoy the most delightful weather—weather that would be called pleasant in April and May on the Eastern side of the continent—while the inhabitants of the greater part of America and Europe are complaining of the unusual severity of the cold? Are we in Victoria so far out of the world that the "great cosmical" influences do not reach us, or is the cold wave broken and dissipated when it strikes against the Rocky mountains?

IN HYSTERICS.

The Toronto World's indictment of the Liberal party is altogether too sweeping. All Liberals are not annexationists, and Annexation or British Connection is not yet the issue in this country. The annexationists will have to increase very fast and become infinitely more influential than they are before political union with the United States becomes even a serious issue in this Dominion. The ground taken by the Toronto World is very different, indeed, from the representations made by Dr. Ryerson in Philadelphia the other day. That gentleman was careful to say that annexation has not as yet been taken seriously by the people of Canada. This is the truth. The great majority of Canadians look upon the men who advocate annexation as impracticable malcontents and half-crazy theorists, who are really not worth listening to. Union with the United States many regard as a question not worth discussing seriously, and many more look upon it as being a long way outside the sphere of practical politics. If Dr. Ryerson is right, and we believe he is, the Toronto World attaches a great deal more importance to the agitation in favor of annexation than it deserves, and by giving it undue prominence, helps the cause which it professes to oppose.

Such wholesale denunciation as our Toronto contemporary indulges in does no good whatever, and even as a move in the tactics of party is a serious mistake. To endeavor to attach odium to men who it is known do not deserve it, instead of hurting them does them good. It creates a sympathy for them which, if they are wise, they can use to good advantage. There are many Liberals in Canada who are known to be as loyal as any of its inhabitants. To attempt to condemn them as annexationists is so manifest an injustice as to excite the indignation of their friends of both parties.

Besides, to represent the whole Liberal party as favoring annexation is to do an injustice to Canadians as a people. It is to say that nearly half the population of Canada is annexationist in sentiment, which is very far indeed from being the truth. What is more ridiculous than to try to make the world believe that Sir Oliver Mowat would, if he had the opportunity, help to hand Canada over to the United States, and that he is trying to bring about that opportunity. There is not a sane man in Ontario who would not laugh at the absurdity of such a monstrous accusation. And there are thousands of Liberals in all parts of Canada who are quite as loyal as Sir Oliver Mowat. If Canadians would take the World's advice and unite against the annexationists of the Dominion, they would present the curious spectacle of a whole people being scared by a phantom.

The Times attributes the foolishness of the World to fright caused by its "realization of the fact that the tide is setting strongly against (its) party in Dominion politics." We are at a loss to see where the Times finds its grounds for this opinion. If the ordinary indications are to be relied upon the party to which the World belongs is exceedingly strong in the country. When the Government was reorganized a little while ago every one of the ministers who went to the country was returned without opposition, and the bye-elections that have been held since the general election have been overwhelmingly in favor of the party in power. The policy of the Government has been approved by the people hitherto, and there is not the slightest reason to believe that the course which it intends to take will not be equally acceptable to the country at large. And what has the World to be afraid of? Not the Liberal party, certainly. That party was never in such a disorganized and demoralized condition since it first came into existence as it is at this present moment. It finds it impossible to hold its own, and the prospect before it has not brightened in the least of late. The boastfulness of the Times is almost as reasonless as the hysterical outburst of the Toronto World.

AN INTERESTING EXPERIMENT.

An interesting experiment is about to be tried in New York. A missionary is to be sent to its poor who does not preach and who does not even distribute tracts. His name is D. Stanton Coit. He is an Englishman. "Deeds and not words" appears to be his motto. "He," it is said, "believes in the gospel of helpfulness, of cheap food, of co-operative stores, and especially of soap and water." This is what the New York Herald says about him:

If he has any creed we don't know what it is and don't care to. He will begin his work in the crowded Tenth ward; will furnish the poor with coal and food at cost; will show them that it is better to be clean than filthy; will make it fashionable to take baths, on the ground that it is easier to resist temptation when you have a clean shirt on than when you are in rags. He will cultivate self-respect by means of a bathtub, and show the unfortunates that they still have some friends left in the world. There is to be very little preaching, if any, the object being not to talk but to do something; to present an object lesson which will be more eloquent than any sermon ever delivered.

The Herald continues:

You may smile and you may shrug your shoulders, but there is more philosophy in the movement and a deeper knowledge of human nature than appears at first sight. If Mr. Coit can make any impression on the Tenth ward, can wash it clean, can diminish drunkenness by furnishing honest work at fair wages, can make those tenement homes more comfortable, can alleviate some of the worst torments of poverty, and substitute comparative contentment and happiness, he will effect a change little short of miraculous and revolutionize the methods of the Christian Church.

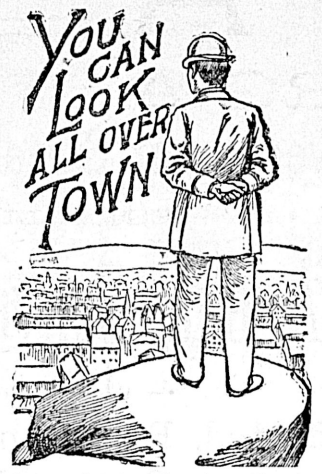

If Mr. Coit succeeds he will teach the world a lesson of great value. If he produces the results which the Herald points out, a new mission field will be opened to the benevolent and the philanthropic. To help the poor and the degraded of the great cities without pauperizing them, and to elevate them morally as well as socially by teaching them to rely on themselves, will be doing a great and, it appears to us, a most difficult work, and one which all who have any faith in the improvability of mankind should encourage. There are many who will watch the progress of this new missionary's work with great interest.

MR. CARMICHAEL'S LETTER.

Those who compare Mr. Herbert Carmichael's letter in to-day's issue with his analysis in April last will be surprised that he did not then say a word about the water getting bad when the hot weather sets in. He then gave the water an excellent character, comparing it with water supplied to London Glasgow, Manchester, etc. The comparison was in most respects favorable to the water of Elk Lake taken from a tap in the city on the 4th, 5th and 6th of April. In fact it was on this analysis that we formed our opinion of the water supplied to the city. Had he then said, as he says now in January, that bacteria appear in it in the summer months and that animalculæ spring into life, the information would have modified our estimate of the water very materially. We then, relying upon his analysis, wrote very avorably of Victoria's water supply, which we certainly would not have done if Mr. Carmichael had then qualified his analysis as he does now. He may not have intended to cause us and the readers of the COLONIST to place a false estimate on the water supplied to the city, but his reticence had that effect. It is a pity that he did not correct his analysis of April, 1892, a little earlier, and it would be more satisfactory if the correction he has given assumed a more definite and exact form.

THE CITY.

A Special Meeting.

A special meeting of the City Council has been called for Monday evening next, at 8 o'clock, for the transaction of pressing business. There will be the usual weekly meeting on Wednesday.

Local Improvements.

Ald. Munn intends at next meeting of the City Council to move an amendment to the Broad Street Local Improvement By-law. If his motion carries there will be a clear roadway through to the City Market.

Bicycle Accident.

Mr. Harry McKillican yesterday sustained a very serious accident. He was riding from the factory to his home, and when crossing Cook street endeavored to get out of the way of a baby carriage. In so doing his machine turned over, throwing the rider into the ditch and smashing his right wrist. His injuries are of a very serious nature.

The Official Map.

Ald. McKillican gives notice that he will at the next meeting of the City Council move that the Mayor be authorized to employ counsel and take any steps necessary in his opinion to secure the passage of the private bill through the Legislative Assembly, of which notice has been given in the B. C. Gazette of 5th of January. The bill alluded to is the City of Victoria Official Map Amendment Act.

Died at the Asylum.

Sergt. Hawton returned from New Westminster yesterday, having handed over to the authorities at the Asylum James Pusey, who had been committed as suffering from religious mania. Before the return of the Sergeant, a telegram reached town announcing the death of the patient from exhaustion in maniacal excitement. He died yesterday morning. The greatest sympathy is felt for his family.

First Meeting at the New Track.

It has been decided by the managers of the Victoria Turf Club to hold the inaugural meeting on the track at Mount Tolmie on Saturday afternoon, May 20. The new track will be fully completed, as will the buildings, by April 1, so that every facility will be afforded horsemen for training both runners and trotters. Besides good purses for both trotting and running, the club will hang up a substantial purse for a "Track Trotting Record," the management believing that by so doing they will easily establish the fact that Victorians are in possession of one of the fastest courses on the Coast.

Chinese Woe.

Kwong Wo was brought up on remand at Police court yesterday. He is accused of vending spirituous liquor to his fellow-countrymen without having gone through the formality of taking out a license. It appears that he was suspected of plying an illicit trade, and the services of another Chinaman were secured, who called upon Kwong and purchased a couple of bottles of the stuff. Mr. Walls appeared for the defence, and raised the point that there could be no conviction on the uncorroborated evidence of two informers—the Chinaman who purchased the intoxicant and Assistant Rate Collector Smith, by whom he was employed. Judgment was reserved.

A Scaler's Clumsy Forgery.

David H. Morgan, who has shipped as a steersman on board the Dora Sieward, was in the dock at Police court yesterday morning, charged with forgery. Morgan had been drinking heavily, and on the evening of the 17th inst. produced a check on the Bank of B. C. for $65, alleged to have been drawn in his favor by Capt. Sieward, the owner of the craft. On this he raised $30 at the bar of the Queen's Hotel, and on the following morning had a further advance of $25. When the check was tendered at the bank it was discovered that Capt. Sieward had no account there, and Morgan was handed over to the police. He yesterday plead not guilty, but evidence was produced which Magistrate Macrae thought sufficient to send the case on for trial.

Tournament and Concert.

The Market Hall will be thrown open this evening, when a unique entertainment will be given for the benefit of St. Luke's church, Cedar Hill. A programme consisting of drills, tugs-of-war and athletic exercises will be presented, in which several local organizations will take part. Sixteen uniformed knights will give an exhibition drill, followed by a tug-of-war in which the members of C battery, under Sergt. A. Mulcahy, will compete with the navy, represented by ten able seamen from H. M. S. Hyacinth. A drill by thirty young ladies will be a feature of the entertainment, to be followed by one of the most novel and interesting sights ever witnessed in British Columbia. Ten red men will compete with ten natives of the Celestial Kingdom in a tug-of-war. Another feature of the entertainment will be the lightning hitch and aerial drill by the firemen. The horses and apparatus of the fire department will be taken to the Market Hall in the afternoon and will be drilled to respond to an alarm in the manner they do in the fire halls. Eight horses, thirty firemen, a chemical engine, steam fire engine, truck and hose carriage will be in the building, and a lively engine house scene will be the closing act of the entertainment. During the evening the splendid band from C battery, R. C. A., will give several selections.

For Trial on the Twenty-Third.

Two cases are set down for trial on January 23—one in the Admiralty court, C. P. N. Co. v. Sargeant, and the other in the Supreme court, —— v. Giles.

Meeting of Directors.

The newly-elected board of directors of the B. C. Fire Insurance Co. will meet on Thursday afternoon next for the election of officers and the transaction of general business.

City v. Country.

Teams of Association football players representing respectively Victoria city and Victoria district will meet at the Hill today, the "oppidans" being Boyd, Glen, Earsman, Tyrrell, Le Maitre, Myers, Allan, Goward, Cartwright, Heap and Spring.

Off for Ottawa.

Four of the British Columbia members of the House of Commons are arranging to leave for the Capital on Monday evening next so as to reach there Monday week. They are Messrs. Thos. Earle, E. G. Prior, G. E. Corbould and J. A. Mara. Mr. Barnard will not leave for a few days. The House opens on the 26th, which falls on Thursday.

Parlor Social Next Wednesday.

The Ladies' Aid Society of the Centennial Methodist church are arranging for a good entertainment and social, to be held in the church parlors on Wednesday evening next. There will be a first-class programme provided, and the ladies promise to sustain the reputation they have for always giving something more than is promised in the way of entertainment.

Mistaken Identity.

George McCann, a dyer, was charged at Police court yesterday with assault and battery upon a woman whom he did not know. It appears that another dyer called upon the lady in question and secured some work on the strength of McCann's card. When the solicitor returned the lady gave him a big bit of her mind, and the gentleman retorted with blows. She had McCann summoned, but it was shown that it was his impersonator who ought to be in the dock. He will be looked up.

A Rich Find.

Mr. J. C. Anderson has returned from a two years' exploration of the West Coast in the interests of the Washington Prospecting Co., of Seattle. He is highly pleased with the results of his labors, and reports having discovered a piece of ground near Barclay Sound, some six miles in width, which he declares to be the greatest bed of marble on the continent. From the samples which Mr. Anderson has brought down with him, and which he forwarded to Seattle yesterday evening, it is clear that he has struck something very rich. In addition to the marble beds, Mr. Anderson has located three good bodies of iron ore as well as some fine quartz and placer gold. His company mean business, and intend to work their claims for all they are worth.

An Interesting Case.

The case of the National Electric Tramway & Lighting Co. versus Paterson & McKay, which was set down for trial on January 23, has been adjourned to February 3. The action is an interesting one, arising out of alleged defective work in the construction of the tramway in the City of Victoria, The contract, it appears, called, among other things, for the ties to be so placed that their centres would not be more than three feet apart. Some of them are now said to be very much wider apart, and the contractor, Mr. Paterson, is being sued for damages, Mr. McKay, who was superintendent of the company at the time, being made a co-defendant. The defence is that if there was any failure to carry out the contract, it was by arrangement with the company and consented to by them. The amount of damages claimed is $15,000. Messrs. Belyea & Gregory for plaintiffs; Messrs. Bodwell & Irving for defendants.

Drunken Rowdyism.

Joseph Powers and George Thompson were in the dock at Police court yesterday, charged with having broken windows in the Queen's Music Hall, corner of Store and Johnson street, on the 18th inst. The charge against Powers was withdrawn, and that against Thompson prosecuted. John N. Johnson, the proprietor of the place, deposed that the damage done would not be covered by $75. The prisoner, it appeared from evidence, became very obstreperous and with his companion, Powers, was thrown out. A few minutes afterwards, stones came whizzing through the windows, and Thompson was proven to have had a hand in the mischief. He was returned for trial, and then came a charge against him of having assaulted James Chapman, who runs the restaurant in connection with the Queen's. The case having been established, the accused was found guilty and sentenced to one month's imprisonment.

To Entertain Their Friends.

The Y. M. C. A. will entertain the Epworth league and the Christian Endeavor societies of the city at their rooms on Wednesday evening next. A very large gathering of Christian workers is expected.

St. Saviour's.

Arrangements are now complete for a concert in connection with St. Saviour's church on the 30th inst. An excellent and novel programme is promised, and, judging from the success of the rehearsals, a treat is in store for all who assemble in the Victoria West Hall on the above date.

Wooden Wedding.

Mr. and Mrs. T. Gravlin, of 21 Perry street, James Bay, celebrated their wooden wedding last night; the presents were numerous, ranging from a potato masher to a Chinese piano played with a wash board. The evening was spent in amusements, which lasted till the early hours in the morning.

At Calvary Baptist Church.

The subject of the service last night was found in Acts 24-24-25. The pastor prefaced his address by the statement that the time had come in these series of meetings when very many begin to make excuse. Many excuses were offered, but the most popular one was to defer accepting the salvation "till a more convenient season." Three persons accepted the offer of salvation.

L.O.L. Festivities.

The Temperance hall, Pandora street, was again filled last evening, the occasion being an entertainment given by Victoria Lodge, No. 1426, L.O.L. Bro. Braden, P.M., occupied the chair, and his address was the announcement of a good programme, the numbers on which were as follows: Piano solo, Miss Braden; recitation, Mr. McNeil; guitar solo, Mr. Booth; song, Miss Tobin; song, Mr. Watson; song, Mr. Jones; presentation to Mr. Isaac Walsh by ex-Alderman Holland; song with guitar accompaniment, Mr. Booth; song, Mr. Guilroy; recitation, Miss Duncan. After a most pleasing address had been read, showing the appreciation and esteem which the lodge felt for the honored member, a very handsome Past Master's jewel was presented to Bro. Walsh, P. M., by ex-Alderman Holland.

V. I. BUILDING SOCIETY.

Annual Report—Election of Directors—Drawing for Appropriation—Appointment of Officers.

The ninth annual meeting of the Vancouver Island Building society was held in the Sir William Wallace Society's hall, Broad street, last evening, when considerable business was transacted. The annual reports of the secretary and directors were first read and carried along with several suggestions contained therein. All the loans passed by the Board of Directors to date were reported by the secretary as having been paid. The amount loaned this year was only $16,690, as against $20,700 last year, but the reason of this decrease was apparent in the larger amount paid out and also in the larger cash balance. Nine drawings have been held during the year, resulting in $18,000 being allotted to various shares, making a grand total of $111,000 now drawn for, of which sum $103,000 has been at the end of the year loaned to members.

When the secretary's report was concluded, the following officers were elected: Directors, John M. Read, G. A. Carleton, Joshua Holland, Henry Moss, R. Carter, R. Erskine and C. Booth; secretary, B. Williams (re-elected by acclamation), and treasurer, A. H. Maynard (re-elected by acclamation).

The 64th drawing for an appropriation was then held. The committee appointed to conduct the drawing were Messrs. Geo. Gawley, Henry Moss and Joshua Holland. John Smith was declared entitled to the appropriation, the drawing being for 33 A. and B.

The newly-elected board of directors then met and made the following appointments: President, J. M. Read (re elected for the ninth time); Vice-President, G. A. Carleton (re-elected); Surveyor, John Teague (re-appointed); and Solicitors, Messrs. Eberts & Taylor.

The next drawing for an appropriation will probably take place some time in March.

Daughters of England.

A largely attended meeting was held in Forester's Hall last evening, for the purpose of establishing a lodge of the Daughters of England Benevolent Society in this city. A couple of weeks ago a branch of the society was organized on the Mainland, and the Daughters of England who have made Victoria their home are determined to organize here. A requisition was presented and numerously signed, which will be sent on to the parent society in Hamilton, Ont., and a charter will then issue. Those wishing to join can sign at the P.O. wicket with Mr. B. F. Shepherd.

I Had Goitre

Or swellings in the neck since I was 10 years old; am now 52. I used Hood's Sarsaparilla recently and the swelling has entirely disappeared It has been very troublesome. When I began I was feeling so discouraged with the goitre and rheumatism I felt that I would as soon be dead as alive. Whenever I caught cold I could not walk two blocks without fainting. Now I am free from it all and I can truly recommend Hood's Sarsaparilla. I received a letter from Mrs. Jennie Bigelow, now of Fremont, Mich., asking if my testimonial in behalf of Hood's Sarsaparilla was true; I replied it was, and sent particulars. I have another letter from her thanking me very much for recommending

SUPREME COURT OF B. C.

(Before the Chief Justice and Walkem and Drake, JJ.)

Thaddeus Harper (a person of unsound mind, not found so by inquisition) by Matthew Warmsley, his next friend, plaintiff, versus John Cameron, defendant.

Monday, Jan. 16, 1893.

Begbie, C. J.—In this case we have all come to the same conclusion. The matter comes before us in two ways; to the Full court by way of appeal from the judgment, to the Divisional court by way of application for a new trial on the ground that the verdict is without evidence and against the weight of evidence, or, in other words, is such as no reasonable men could have come to upon the evidence before the jury. As a matter of convenience, the whole matter was argued before us, constituted so as to have jurisdiction both as a Full court and as a Divisional court. The question mainly turns on the motion argued before us as a Divisional court, viz: for a new trial on the ground that the verdict is without evidence or against evidence. At the trial it was necessary for the plaintiff to establish two things as constituting the fraud by reason of which he claims relief. First, that Harper was at the time of the contract, viz., in November, 1887, intellectually unable to manage his own affairs; and, second, that Cameron was aware of this, and took advantage of it to induce him to enter into the impeached contract. The jury have found for the plaintiff. The defendant, in order to set aside their verdict, must be prepared to establish that the findings of the jury were without sufficient evidence, and such as no reasonable men could have found. That is the rule now perfectly established. It is unnecessary to refer to authorities; it is strikingly adhered to in the very recent case in the Privy Council of Ellis v. South British Insurance company on the 10th of last month. The two allegations therefore are that Harper was incompetent, and that Cameron knew it. The first of these propositions, viz.: Harper's incompetence was surely abundantly proved. I have read and digested the evidence as well as I can. Of course there is some evidence the other way. A case must be very bad indeed when there is no evidence on the losing side. It is, however, the function of the jury to weigh the evidence, and in this case I quite agree with the jury on the first proposition; the great preponderating weight of evidence is to the effect that Harper was incompetent after his accident in 1884, and continued so not only to the time of the contract in 1887, but up to the date of the trial. That alone, however, is very far from showing that Cameron knew of such incompetence and took advantage of it, which is the further combination that must be established in order to the success of this action. If it can be shown that Cameron was aware of the incompetence, very slight evidence might induce a reasonable man to believe that he was taking advantage of it when Harper concluded such a one-sided bargain as the present contract manifestly was. Now, as Cameron's knowledge and his motives were necessarily in the first instance confined to his own breast, it would almost seem that they must be made out from his own statements or admissions, either at the trial or to strangers; failing which, the jury would consider such circumstances as lead naturally to that inference. I have not found any evidence, any actual admissions by Cameron, as to his motive or intentions. But there is evidence, even in his own statement in the witness box, upon which reasonable men could have properly come to a conclusion unfavorable to the defendant on both points. It is to be remembered that the jury, not this bench of judges, is the constituted tribunal to determine such points. It is considered, and I am far from disputing it, that the jury being more nearly of the education and habits of mind of litigants can, better than the judges, enter into the motives and appreciate the acts of plaintiffs and defendants. And it is only when the judges are satisfied that the first jury have acted merely unreasonably that we are authorized to interfere and take the opinion of another jury. Now, have the jury acted unreasonably here? They are told by Cameron himself in his own evidence that Harper, after his accident, had changed in many important particulars. There was loss of memory, not recollecting the names or faces of his acquaintances, not even of Cameron himself. Cameron remarked, and was much struck with that. Then Cameron also told the jury that from having previously been reserved and taciturn about his business affairs, Harper had become talkative and garrulous about them even with strangers. Cameron told the jury that he noticed a great change—that every one would notice it (pp. 290). Although, upon re-examination, in answer to a rather leading question, "Was the change you noticed in Harper physical or mental?" he answered, "Physical," yet the changes which he had admitted having noticed, and some of which I have just pointed out, garrulity and loss of memory, etc., are mental much more than physical. In one sense, all the matters mentioned by the witnesses—carelessness in dress, slovenly, not to say dirty, habits, boastful and coarse conversation—in direct contradiction of his former habits—are probably merely indications of a physical change, viz: of the physical injury to the brain from that unfortunate kick, but they may also be held to indicate a mental change. Nor is it unreasonable, but highly reasonable, for the jury to conclude that a change which persuaded so many people of Harper's incompetence, had conveyed the same persuasion to Cameron as well. All this evidence was before the jury and is before us in the shorthand writer's notes. It is quite unnecessary for me to give an opinion whether this evidence, or the counter statements of Cameron's witnesses, are the weightier. That was wholly for the jury. It is, however, to be noticed that Cameron's own counsel never ventured to ask him whether Harper after the accident was as keen and competent in business as he had been before the accident or whether, noticing a physical change, he had not noticed also a mental change. In point of fact Cameron does describe a mental change, at least a change in habits whence the jury might well infer a mental deterioration, accompanied probably with a physical deterioration as well. But even if contradicted, it would be entirely for the jury to weigh the evidence and give effect to that which they believe. But we must recollect that the jury had before them as an object lesson, a great deal of evidence, perhaps the most persuasive of any, which cannot be brought before us here. They had the opportunity of seeing and hearing Cameron himself under examination and cross-examination. Of this the court have not and cannot have the opportunities of judging which the jury had. Upon an examination involving a question of fraud, perhaps the most important thing to be noticed — perhaps more important than his verbal statement — is the conduct of the party himself, his look, and carriage and whole demeanor; the tones of the voice, evidences of surprise, etc. This we cannot have. No photograph of the man's manner or the tones of his voice can be introduced before judges on appeal. The impression of the learned judge at the trial as to Cameron's demeanor and the effect produced on his mind is very briefly but emphatically dealt with in two or three lines of his judgment, and there can be little doubt that the jury formed the same opinion of Cameron's knowledge and intentions. Then the nature of the whole transaction is such as to excite grave suspicion. The application for the lease is entirely Cameron's suggestion. It is to be taken in Harper's name, who alone is to be liable for covenants and contracts of every description. Cameron is to be a silent partner (statement defence, par. 4 and 5,) but to have a moiety of all profits, and in the meantime to be employed at $10 per day upon works requiring considerable engineering skill, which Cameron does not profess to have ever acquired (pp. 253 4 5)—everything to be paid for by Harper. Then, when Harper's hopes had been carefully excited by Cameron reporting an alleged offer of $250,000 and in other ways, Cameron closes instantaneously, as he himself says (pp. 261), with Harper's offer of $50,000. I am not surprised at the view the jury took of the transaction. I do not think it unreasonable. I think it a very reasonable view. And they have found that Cameron had practically nothing to sell. I have not here at all examined the evidence adduced at the trial in favor of Harper's competency. There is, as I have said, some evidence to establish this. The jury have, however, rejected it; they cannot be allowed to do that without some reasonable evidence to support their verdict, and we are only at liberty to look at the whole evidence to see whether they have some such, not with a view of weighing conflicting evidence or giving any opinion of our own. All I need say is that there is here abundance to support the verdict. I think, therefore, that the application for a new trial wholly fails and must be dismissed with costs. As to the appeal to the Full Court I think that judgment should be entered against the defendant in accordance with the verdict, and therefore the appeal should also be dismissed with costs. My brother Walkem will deal more particularly with that. But the verdict, and indeed the whole action, can only be treated as affecting Cameron's beneficial rights acquired in the former action of Cameron v. Harper in 1888. Many matters have been dealt with in that action affecting many parties, not parties to the present action and not in any wise implicated in or concerned with the frauds which the jury have now denounced. The judgment must be carefully drawn and in part modified so as not to affect innocent parties. It will be more in the nature of a Chancery decree, and will be prefaced by a declaration in accordance with the verdict, and then give consequent directions. Lord Redesdale's decree in Carew v. Johnson, 2 Sch. and Lef. 208, will afford a useful precedent. There will be a reference to a judge to settle the exact form of decree.

DAYS OF SUFFERING

Tortures and Pains are Banished!

PAINE'S CELERY COMPOUND

DOES THE WORK!

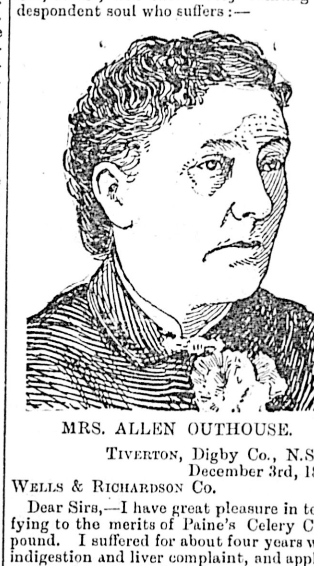

A LADY SAYS:

"I AM PERFECTLY WELL TO-DAY!"

It is well known that physicians often—very often—fail in relieving suffering and curing disease. Incurable! This is a terrible verdict when it comes from the physician to the diseased one.

These incurable cases are always met by that never-failing remedy, Paine's Celery Compound, and the invariable result is new life, health and strength.

The following letter of testimony from Mrs. Allen Outhouse, of Tiverton, Digby Co., N. S., will cheer every fainting and despondent soul who suffers:—

MRS. ALLEN OUTHOUSE.

TIVERTON, Digby Co., N.S., December 3rd, 1892.

WELLS & RICHARDSON CO.

Dear Sirs,—I have great pleasure in testifying to the merits of Paine's Celery Compound. I suffered for about four years with indigestion and liver complaint, and applied to two of our best physicians, but derived no benefit. I kept growing worse, and came to the conclusion that there was no help for me. At times my stomach would swell till I would have to loosen my clothes, at which times there would be severe pains which would run from the stomach and side to my right shoulder, and so distress me, that often my family thought I was dying.

Less than a year ago I heard of Paine's Celery Compound, and have since given it a fair trial, and have taken five bottles, and I am perfectly well to-day as the result. I can heartily recommend its use to any one suffering with like troubles.

With best wishes for the future success of your most excellent remedy.

I remain yours respectfully,

MRS. ALLEN OUTHOUSE.

I can testify to the above statements being true in every particular.

LARDEAU

Situated at the head of Navigation on the Northeast Arm of the Upper Arrow Lake, West Kootenay, B. C., is

THE GATEWAY

To the Richest Mines in West Kootenay District, situated on Fish Creek, North of Lardeau City, and in the Lardeau Pass, Southeast of Lardeau.

ON SALE TO-DAY

The Mines are reached by Trail from Lardeau, which is naturally the distributing point for supplies, and the shipping point for ore from these Rich Mining Fields.

THE TOWNSITE

Now on sale at the Office of the Undersigned. The Terms are Reasonable, and there is every reason for stating that a handsome profit will be realized on all Lots purchased at present prices.

Arrangements have been made for the clearing of a portion of the Townsite, for the erection of Hotel and Stores, and for various other improvements so that Lardeau City will build up rapidly in the Early Spring.

Lardeau City is the entrance point for the Lardeau Pass, which reaches through to the head of Kootenay Lake, and application has already been made for a charter to build a Railway from Lardeau City to Lake Kootenay and Nelson.

Lardeau City is not a town competing with several other points in the same District. It is naturally the best point for supplying the surrounding Mining Country, and there is a brighter prospect for it to-day than there was for Kaslo a year ago. Lots purchased in the latter, last year, have been sold this summer at an advance of from two hundred to a thousand per cent.

Steamer "Wilmington" Released—The Case Against the "Sargent"—A Sealer Heard From.

Schooner "Venture" Leased by Americans—Quarantine Ship for Port Townsend.

The case of C. P. N. Co. v. Sargeant is set for trial in the Admiralty Court on January 23. It is an action arising out of a combination of peculiar circumstances which are of themselves interesting. The Sargeant is a sailing vessel which was bound for Esquimalt harbor, but through continued fog and thick heavy weather, her officers were unable to navigate correctly, and she made Barclay Sound instead. While lying to, the steamer Maude was also seen dritting about, being also out of her course, but her captain was afterwards able to fix the location by an island he sighted. Then he came back to the Sargeant and bargained to tow her out. The captain of the Sargeant wanted to pay $200, but the Maude's captain thought the service would be worth $500. An agreement was, however, finally come to, by which it was left to the owners to settle, and it is alleged that it was stipulated that in any event the charge should not exceed $500. The C. P. N. Co., owners of the Maude, now sue to recover a larger sum.

A QUARANTINE BOAT FOR PORT TOWNSEND.

The following item appears in the San Francisco Bulletin of the 16th instant: "The United States steamer Iroquois will shortly leave Mare Island for Port Townsend. The vessel will be used at that place as a quarantine ship, she having been designated by the department upon request of the Secretary of the Treasury for that purpose. All useless gear will be stripped from her and left at the island. A couple of boats will be retained on board."

PASSENGERS FOR VICTORIA.

The steamship Umatilla, due here from San Francisco to-morrow night, has the following passengers on board for Victoria: M. G. Hall, R. Geddes, T. Howe and wife, J. F. Webster, W. W. Concannon, R. H. Benedict, J. Parks, H. Vole, H. Scott, J. McLaughlin, E. Hoe, H. Lejer, W. Stokes, S. Williams, Eva Bedford.

FIRST NEWS FROM THE SEALING FLEET.

A party who arrived over from the Sound last evening says the sealing schooner May Belle, which sailed from here in command of Capt. Harris about the 14th inst., was spoken off Cape Flattery with 118 skins on board and all her boats out. This is the first news received from any of the fleet at sea since they left port.

THE WILMINGTON RELEASED.

The Portland steamer Wilmington, which was seized by the sheriff on Thursday last, was released yesterday, the amount of $1,000, the claim brought by the C.P.N. Co. for assistance rendered by the Islander at Vancouver on the 6th inst., having been put up in two sureties.

LEASED FOR THE SEASON.

E. C. Richards has returned to Port Townsend from Victoria, having made arrangements for a schooner for sealing purposes. He succeeded in leasing the Venture which will carry ten canoes, and a great portion of his operations will be by Indians.

The World's Fair Temperance Headquarters.

Which has been so widely noticed, and in which over 20,000 temperance people have become deeply interested, with the intention of making their home at that place during the World's Fair, is no more. On the evening of the 9th the great hotel stood complete. At 9 o'clock on that evening a fire broke out in a portion of the building where the painters' supplies were stored. The wind was blowing a genuine western blizzard, and it was on one of the coldest nights of the winter. It was found impossible to extinguish the flames and the building was completely reduced to ashes. In this experience, however, the nature of Chicago enterprise and the metal of our temperance people have both at once been given a full illustration.

Within sixteen hours after the flames were out lumber was already being placed upon the site and plans were on foot for rebuilding. The loss is largely covered by insurance. The building will be rebuilt on plans submitted to and approved by the insurance authorities, and will be made the safest building of its sort in the world. The office of the headquarters at 161 La Salle street, Chicago, has been flooded with letters from the guests who have engaged lodgings in advance, and without exception it is the declared purpose of its patrons, as well as the plans of its promoters, to stand by the enterprise and make it even a larger success than at any time before proposed, notwithstanding its misfortune.

Real Merit

Is the characteristic of Hood's Sarsapilla, and it is manifested every day in the remarkable cures this medicine accomplishes. Druggists say: When we sell a bottle of Hood's Sarsaparilla to a new customer we are sure to set him back in a few weeks after more—proving that the good results from a trial bottle warrant continuing its use. This positive merit Hood's Sarsaparilla possesses by virtue of the Peculiar Combination, Proportion and Process used in its preparation and by which all the remedial value of the ingredients used is retained. Hood's Sarsaparilla is thus Peculiar to Itself and absolutely unequalled in its power as a blood purifier, and as a tonic for building up the weak and weary, and giving nerve strength.

PROGRESSIVE HAMMOCKING.

A Western Girl Invents a Very Unique Game.

The young people in one of St. Louis' prettiest suburbs are in a state of feverish excitement over a new game that has been devised by some of their number, says the Globe-Democrat. It is called "progressive hammocking," and is so full of golden opportunities in a sentimental way that it is destined to become very popular with the youth of both sexes.

A bright young girl, to whom, with several others, is due the credit of having given this new diversion to the world, thus describes it:

"You see, each girl is provided with a hammock, in which she reclines, gracefuly or ungracefully, according to the extent of her experience in hammocking, during the game. The hammocks are hung far enough apart so that no one can see or hear her neighbors, and above each is suspended a Chinese lantern with a number on it; but these, of course, will be blown out early in the proceedings. A chaperon is required—preferably two—a lady and a gentleman. To start the game the boys draw numbers from a hat, and then each hunts up the hammock which corresponds to the number drawn. At a given signal he begins to tell the girl in it a love story. By the rules the stories must be impersonal.

"But of course they won't be. That," she added with a laugh, "is a matter that lies with the story teller and his conscience. Well, at the end of fifteen minutes the chaperon beats a tom-tom and the boys move up one hammock, and each tells another story to a new listener. The stories, mind you, must all be different—that is, one cannot tell the same story to two girls."

"And they must all be love stories?" asked the reporter.

"Certainly. Oh, it's more fun. The boys out there are scouring the town for short love stories. De Maupassant is in great demand. But some of them draw on their own experience for material. Well, when the rounds have been made, and each of the six, say, has told six amorous tales to six tender maidens a secret ballot is taken, the girls voting for the best story-teller and the boys for the best listener. That's where the real funny part comes in, for, of course, each girl will vote for the man she likes best, and vice versa; hence the chaperon will become the sacred repository of one-half dozen true love tales."

"What about the prizes?"

"There will be six first prizes on each side, and no boobies," and the fair schemer laughed heartily at the success of her efforts to devise something new and startling in the way of summer amusement.

HIS TIME WAS VALUABLE.

A California Banker Paid One Dollar a Minute by an Insurance Agent.

For two or three years a tall young man representing an eastern life insurance company has been staying from time to time at a San Francisco hotel. His name was Fennell and many people have been smiling audibly lately over an experience he had. One morning recently, according to the San Francisco Examiner story, he rushed into the Anglo-Californian bank and said to the president, who was very busy writing:

"I would like to see you, sir, just for a few minutes."

"I can't talk to you this morning," said the president. "My time is too valuable. I've got an immense amount of work to do and can't possibly stop. Minutes are money to me now."

"What is your time worth, anyway?" demanded the agent, with slight asperity, illy concealing his disappointment.

"A dollar a minute," responded the banker with equal promptness.

"All right," said the agent, reaching into his pocket and drawing forth a twenty-dollar gold piece. "I'll take twenty of them and talk twenty minutes."

"Go ahead," said the man of money, raking down the coin.

Then the insurance man rolled off a beautiful story with scarcely a punctuation mark in it, the banker all the time holding his watch.

"You can't insure me," said the banker.

"All right; but you listen," was the response.

He talked till the full twenty minutes were up. Then the financier put his time piece in his pocket, firm as ever to his conviction that he needed no insurance. Moreover, he kept the twenty dollars.

Mr. Fennell went away disgusted. Since then he has not paid anybody for his time.

BOMBARDING THE CLOUDS.

Small Bombs for the Use of Farmers Needing Rain.

A company engaged in the manufacture of explosives has for sale now small bombs about the size of frankfurter sausages, with which the farmer can bring down small showers of rain whenever he sees clouds over his land.

The constituents of the bomb are divided into two parts, liquid and solid, which are both separately non-explosive. These can be kept separate until the time comes to use them, when they are mixed.

The solid part is about an inch in diameter and eight inches in length, and is wrapped in cotton. These bombs are placed in grooved tin boxes, each holding ten. A small tin measure, containing the liquid part, accompanies each box. It is graduated to show the quantity needed to saturate the bomb to the exploding point.

Five or fifty bombs may be used, according to the amount of rain needed or detonation required. How the farmer is to know how much detonation is needed is a dubious matter. The bombs are tied in a bundle, a time-fuse is attached and the whole lot discharged from a mortar and at the passing cloud.

In hilly countries clouds often pass over the valleys and discharge their contents on the barren mountain sides. In such regions, it is said, the bombs will be particularly useful.

SOLICITORS.

MACMASTER & McGIBBON, Montreal.

The Directors, who are now the owners of the entire Capital Stock, have decided, at the request of numerous friends of the Company throughout Canada, to enlarge the proprietorship of its stock, and to offer for sale, at par, ten thousand shares, of one hundred dollars each, fully paid and non-assessable.

Payments are to be made as follows:—Five per cent. on application; fifteen per cent. on allotment, twenty per cent. each in one, two, three and four months from the date of allotment. Applicants have the right to pay in full on allotment.

Applications for shares will be received until February 15th, 1893, at any of the offices of the Canadian Bank of Commerce, at the offices of the Union Bank of Halifax, and at the head office of the company N. Y. Life Building, Montreal.

Forms of application for shares may be obtained at any of the above places, or they will be sent by mail on request.

Should no allotment of stock be made to any applicant for shares, the amount paid will be returned in full, and in the event of the Directors finding it impossible to allot the full number of shares applied for, the surplus of the deposit will be credited toward the amount payable on allotment.

The right is reserved of withdrawing the offer in whole or part at any time before allotment, and of allotting to any applicant any less number of shares than the number applied for.

As the dividends of the Company are payable quarterly, beginning with the first day of March next, allottees of stock will be entitled to receive a proportion of the quarterly dividend as declared, corresponding to the amount paid upon their subscription.

It is proposed to apply to the Stock Exchanges of Montreal and Toronto for official quotations of the shares of the Company.

The Consumers Cordage Company was organized in June, 1890, with a Capital of one million dollars, to operate several of the largest Cordage and Binder Twine Factories in Canada. It, at first, operated these under leases, but its operations having been successful, the Capital Stock was subsequently increased to Three Million Dollars, and the leased properties were purchased.

The Company has no mortgage indebtedness; and, according to the law under which it was incorporated, none can be created without the consent of two-thirds of the shareholders, represented at a meeting called for the purpose.

The Company has placed in the hands of its Bankers:—

(a) Full statements of its affairs, certified to by Messrs. Caldwell, Tait & Wilks, Chartered Accountants.

(b) The following letter from Messrs. Abbotts, Campbell & Meredith, advocates, Montreal, upon the legality of its incorporation, and the issue of its stock:—

MONTREAL, January 5, 1893.

Consumers Cordage Co., Ltd., Montreal:—

GENTLEMEN,—We have examined the books and documents connected with the organization of the Consumers Cordage Company, Limited, and are of opinion that it has been properly incorporated, and that its capital stock of $3,000,000, as issued, is fully paid up and non-assessable, according to the provisions of the "Companies Act."

We are, yours truly,
(Signed), ABBOTTS, CAMPBELL & MEREDITH.

(c). A report from Messrs. Macmaster and McGibbon, Solicitors of the Company, that the titles to its Mills have been duly examined, and that no encumbrances exist.

Applicants for shares may examine these documents, copies of which may be seen at the Company's offices, and at the various offices of the Banks mentioned above.

The Consumers Cordage Company is probably the second largest Manufacturer of Cordage and Binder Twine in the world, and claims the following very material advantages over its competitors:—

1st. Ample capital to conduct its business which enables it:—

(a) To buy its raw material in larger quantities, and at lower prices.

(b) To use only the latest and most improved machinery, thus keeping its mills in the highest state of efficiency.

2nd. Economy in selling and distributing its manufactured product.

3rd. The business covers so wide a territory (its manufactured goods go to almost every civilized country in the world) that it cannot be seriously injured by local troubles; and its Manufacturing establishments are so scattered that the danger of severe loss by fire is very slight.

4th. Lower cost of production.

(a). By maintaining the sharpest competition between its several mills, it is enabled to introduce in all the best methods found in each.

(b). By spreading its commercial expenses over a larger output.

(c) By placing in one hand the purchasing of the Raw Materials and Manufacturing supplies for the several Mills, thus securing lowest prices.

(d). By manufacturing for themselves many of their supplies.

The Company has always found it in its interest to divide the economies effected in production and distribution with the Consumer, and since its existence the Consumer has, upon the average, had a better article at a lower price than previously.

The Company does not claim to have any monopoly, or to earn monopoly profits; in fact, it has not done so. Since its organization it has been able, owing to the advantages above referred to, to earn a net return on its present capital of not less than 10 per cent. per annum (as statements in their Bankers' hands will show), and the Directors believe that these profits will be maintained in the future, as the cost of production and distribution shows each year a marked decrease.

The Dividend for the year ending 31st October, 1892, was at the rate of 8½ per cent. per annum. The past record of the Company and its present position justify the Directors in believing that quarterly dividends of one and three-quarters per cent. can be paid, and should the profits for the present year be as large as the outlook promises, the final quarter's dividend might be increased.

Any further information may be had at the head office of the Company at Montreal.

The Reason Why So Many Mothers Are Happy.

There are times when a mother's heart swells with pride and gratitude, and she often tells her friends why she is pleased and happy. As a rule the mother's joy is deep and unbounded when her baby is gaining in flesh, bone and muscle; she notes with pride that it sleeps and rests well, and that the glow of health is continually showing up in the little face.

The happy mother knows well that this condition has been brought about by Lactated Food. She remembers that before Lactated Food was used, her baby was wasting away—was peevish and fretful, sleepless and irritable. The great and happy change was effected by special elements of nutrition in Lactated Food, which are not found in the ordinary foods of our times.

This wonderful Lactated Food has saved a greater number of young and tender lives during the past year than all other agencies combined. Our best doctors openly acknowledge the superiority of the great food, and prescribe it freely.

Do Not Miss

Reading this item, as Lange & Co. did not succeed in selling their business for the figure agreed to to their Eastern friend, nor in disposing of all of their stock this Christmas to the public. And as the building wherein they have conducted business for the last 17 years is to be destroyed shortly and a new one erected in place, under the circumstances Lange & Co. are obliged to re-open in their own place, No. 88 Douglas street, opposite Odd Fellows' hall. Reduced sales will continue until goods which are left are sold. Any one wishing to secure a good going business established since 30 years, can do so at a very reasonable figure. And the new premises can be rented at a moderate rate.

THE CLOSE OF THE SHOW.

Annual General Meeting of the Poultry, Dog and Pet Stock Association—The Officers Elect.

Next Exhibition to Be Held at Nanaimo—The Last of the Prize Winners.

The fourth annual exhibition of the B. C. Poultry, Dog and Pet Stock Association came to an end last evening, and to-day only a few of the stragglers remain in the silent Market Hall, soon to be the scene of contests of strength between brawny men instead of between birds and dogs, "for points only." Seattle's contingent of fanciers returned home in a body last night, taking with them their fine stock, the chicken coops being gaily decorated with American flags—and red ribbons. The party consisted of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Rengstroff, Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Carter, Mr. Pillings, Mr. F. T. Palmer, Mr. Oscar Jones, judge of the dogs, Mr. F. W. Hitchcock, judge of the poultry, Mr. E. N. Caldwell, Mr. Josiah Collins, Mr. R. M. Palmer and Mr. Randolph R. Freeman, editor of the Farmer and Turfman. The latter gentleman will be over for the spring races, and will bring a party with him from the Sound. All the visitors from Seattle were well pleased with the courtesies shown them during their present visit.

Of the prize winning poultry not hitherto noticed in the COLONIST, the most notable bird is Mr. S. W. Lobb's B.B.R. Game Cockerel Bantam, which scored 96½ points, a remarkably good record. Mr. C. J. Ellis captured the three prizes for Black Spanish pullets, each of the three birds scoring 96, while Mr. C. W. Riley's S.C. White Leghorn pullet (96) was the first prize winner at the New York show last winter.

Of the Cat show this year little need be said. It was a cat show not a show of cats, Mr. S. Jackman's "Tommy" being the only representative of his race. During yesterday morning some mischievous youngster carried a stranger kitten to the end of the gallery. It had to run the gauntlet of over 100 excited and keenly interested dogs before it could breathe freely again, and if any one takes the trouble to look it up to-day he will, no doubt, find that Miss Pussy has turned snowy white—that is if fear turns the hair as some maintain.

Among the most interested visitors yesterday were the little ones from the P. O. Home, who inspected the pets during the morning, and whose shouts of delight blended musically with the chorus of dogs and fowl. For the last day the champion dog, "Ireland Yet," was provided with a conspicuous position at the end of the gallery, where he received the homage of his admirers, the more intimately acquainted of whom know him by his home name of Charlie. Although the receipts are not yet made up, they will probably, like the exhibits, be twice as satisfactory as those of last year.

It is understood that the incorporation of the association will be undertaken at a very early date; this subject was broached at a meeting of the executive committee yesterday afternoon, but not decided. The only business disposed of at the meeting referred to was a protest against the rule which provides that any exhibit may be sold for the value affixed, the secretary acting as salesman. The point was fully debated, and the society determined to stand by the rule.

A very similar debate occupied the time of the general meeting of the association for several hours in the evening, the adjournment not being taken until midnight. The outcome of the discussion was that the sale of one of C. W. Riley's birds to Caldwell & Larkins was cancelled, the association deciding that an error had been made in entering, the value not being definitely stated.

The chief business of the general meeting was the election of officers, which resulted in the choice of the following gentlemen:

President, D. M. Eberts, M.P.P. (re-elected).
Vice-President, S. W. Lobb, Nanaimo.
Secretary, F. W. Teague.
Treasurer, W. J. McKeon.
Executive Committee—J. B. Carmichael, R. P. McLennan, R. P. Wallis, Dr. Walkem, J. Sharp, W. Bickford, George Jay, Dr. Milne, Surgeon Duncan, R. C. A.; G. A. Perrin, J. Flett, R. Merritt, F. W. Carter, J. H. Rengstroff, W. J. Taylor, and C. W. Riley.

Messrs. L. F. Perrin, W. J. Taylor and C. F. Brown were named as a committee to revise the rules and regulations and report next year, and the Executive committee were recommended to arrange for the holding of the next annual meeting of the association at Nanaimo. The last business of the year was the passage of a well-earned resolution of thanks to the retiring secretary, Mr R. P. McLennan, and his assistant.

HARRISON'S MESSAGE.

How He Proposes to Retaliate Upon Canada In the Interest of American Railways.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 20.—President Hrrrison will send to Congress within a few days a special message which may have an important bearing upon the possible annexation of Canada to the United States. The message is in response to a resolution presented by Mr. Hitt on behalf of the Committee on Foreign Affairs on July 19th, 1892, to inform the House what regulations are now in force concerning the transportation of imported merchandise in bond or duty paid and products or manufactures of the United States from one point in the United States over Canadian territory to other points therein, and especially whether a careful inspection of such merchandise should not be made at the Canadian frontier upon departure or arrival.

The message of President Harrison will point out clearly a plan by which the discrimination in favor of the Canadian Pacific railway against railroads in the United States may be effectively prevented without violating the treaty of Washington. That treaty provides for the shipment of goods under consular seal from one place in Canada to another across United States territory, and vice versa. But the same treaty provides that goods thus shipped across the territory of either country must be from a contiguous nation.

Now, at least nine-tenths of all the merchandise shipped over the Canadian railway and admitted across the border into the United States under consular seal, and with only a nominal examination, is imported from either Asia or Europe. It is evident, they infer, that the "contiguous" clause of the treaty of Washington makes it within the power of the United States Government to insist upon a rigorous examination of those goods at the port of original entry and prevent their transhipment under consular seal.

President Harrison's message will also deal with another phase of the question, which will prove embarrassing to the subsidized military railroad of Canada. The President will declare that this Government has a right to require an inspection by its customs officers of goods received from a territory not "contiguous" at one American port and sent by the high seas to another American port for transhipment. Under the view which President Harrison will take such importations would hereafter receive examination by United States customs officers upon arrival at San Francisco, and the duty upon them would be immediately levied and collected. The effect of this would be to throw their transportation across the continent into the control of American railways instead of the Canadian military line.

A Gymnastic Exhibition.

The hall of the Y.M.C.A. was so crowded last night that the committee room and parlor doors had to be thrown open in order to afford accommodation to all who attended to witness the gymnastic exhibition. The Brown-Richardson orchestra provided the music and added in no small degree to the pleasures of the evening. There was an endless variety of feats with the rings, and on the horizontal and parallel bars, as well as exhibitions with the dumb bells and fencing. The performers were Messrs. Louis, Young, Hart, Roper, Sharp, Tite, DesBrissay, Hamilton, Falconer, Neaves, Cregg and Carmichael. A most enjoyable evening was spent, the plaudits of the audience testifying to their appreciation of the good work in every department. The instructors were highly complimented upon the proficiency attained. Corporal Hamilton instructs in the dumb bells and Indian clubs, Mr. George Tite on the horizontal bar, and Mr. Herb Roper on the parallels. Refreshments were served during the evening.

As a preventive of the Grip Hood's Sarsaparilla has grown into great favor. It fortifies the system and purifies the blood.

SOCIALIST PROGRAMME.

The Crisis Has Taken Them Unawares, and They Are Utterly Unprepared.

PARIS, Jan. 20.—Socialists continue to make the Panama scandal the basis for revolutionary agitation. Citizen Guesde says in an interview: The Panama canal developments are advancing the hour of Socialist triumph. The revelations, bad as they are, have told our party nothing new. It has long been known that Opportunist circles were tainted and falling to pieces through decomposition. The Panama affair is a great scandal, but all the great banks and industrial enterprises are in much the same condition, only their turpitude is hidden more deeply. The Panama exposure will enlighten the country. The small agriculturists will have their eyes opened to the dishonesty of their deputies, and will realize that it is only our party that can promise something appreciable while asking nothing in return. In one sense the occasion has come with inconvenient suddenness, and events find us in a rather unprepared condition. The Socialist ranks are not fully equipped for the coming election.

If we had a personal policy sufficient for the present hour, and if we had money like the Opportunists and Reactionists, we would be certain to secure a majority in the next Chamber of Deputies. Unfortunately we can contest only a part of the electoral districts, but despite all disadvantages we shall return forty to sixty members from the rural districts and retain our hold in the towns, thus making a respectable minority, through which, with perfect organization, we can attain victory within four years along the whole line. Once attaining power, we shall endeavor to bring about political economy and expropriation of the capitalistic class, substituting Socialistic methods of production. We shall lay our hands, in the name of the state, on the great railway companies, the great industries and the warehouses. Under the social revolution thus realized, the workers on railways and in factories and stores shall work on the state's account. Salaries will be immediately raised and the hours of labor lessened. We will deal similarly with great landed properties. We will seize all of them. Farmers will work on account of the state, and the rent of the farms will be diminished by half. The present proprietors will be used only as agents to collect revenues on behalf of the state. These changes will not touch the small agriculturists cultivating their own land.

THE WESTSIDE

Is not selling every article at or under cost. For instance, our Standard, Warranted and Guaranteed Kid Gloves are as usual sold at one dollar and twenty cents. We are selling (as hundreds of buyers well know) Mantles, Jackets, Ulsters and Jerseys at one-half their regular price. This, however, is for the especial purpose of making a complete clearance before the arrival of our new stock expected next month. Underwear, Knit Goods, and all kinds of Winter Woolens we have marked at prices interesting to intending purchasers. Dress Goods in double widths reduced from seventy-five cents to forty cents per yard; fine, all wool Tweeds, fifty-four inches wide, from one dollar and twenty-five to ninety cents, and lots of other goods reduced in a like proportion. We invite inspection, and trust that you will examine carefully whether prices and values are not all that we claim them to be.

Thankful for the generous patronage so freely given us in the past,
